

"View From My Window" by Pastor Everhart

I drove through the Hanover Panera Bread the other day to pick up a salad for lunch. The young lady at the window leaned out and said, "Hello beautiful, you're cute..." The compliments went on and on like that through the entire transaction! If that's not weird enough very similar things have been happening to me on a regular basis. It's not unusual for me to be taking a walk through our neighborhood and have a woman slow her car, roll down her window and say, "What a cutie!" Ladies get a grip! Fortunately I've had my yorkie puppy along every time this has happened – it would have been all the more embarrassing if I had been alone.
