

"View From My Window" by Pastor Everhart

I'm fresh back from vacation and trying to get my brain to function like it did before I gave it a week off. Of course the time flew by yet it's funny how unfamiliar my routine has become to me after so short a respite. Little things like sleeping in and staying up later than usual, eating every hour on the hour, having a diet that consisted mostly of pastries, doing only what I felt like doing... Oh how my flesh grew in just a few days! Suddenly it's time to get up, shave, eat bran infested cereal and go to work. You'll be happy to know I was able to find my office okay. After my computer updated itself I was thankful to discover I can still type. Later I may even try my hand at writing something useful but I'm sure you'll understand that I don't want to overdo it my first day back. I made a quick trip through Wal-Mart this morning on my way in; they have a display of Hawaiian shirts for just nine dollars apiece! Why are men my age so drawn to such displays? I would have bought one but after all vacation is over. So, if a year after I retire you happen to see a very large bald guy with a long beard wearing a loud tropical shirt - that will probably be me.

Our annual church picnic is coming up in just a few weeks (June 7th) and I'd like it to be one of our best yet but I need some help. If you have any suggestions or would like to volunteer to head up games for the kids, games for the adults, a cooking contest or anything else that comes to mind please email me at pastor@eastberlinassembly.org. If you have a special talent like balloon tying, face painting, juggling or your dog does tricks please let me know. Of course we want to leave plenty of time for people just to hang around, relax and talk but also be sure to bring your softball and volleyball equipment. Finally, if you know of anyone with a horse/horses to give pony rides for the kids I'd like to hear about that too.
