

"View From My Window" by Pastor Everhart

Time, time, time, time, time: I'd like to address the topic of time. What is time? How can I account for it? Why can I get so much done during some of it and so little done during other periods of it? How is it that I can leave earlier than usual and arrive later than normal? Why does an hour often feel like forever while the years fly by? I was strolling my grandson along the other day as he pointed out wildlife: "squirrel", "rabbit", "bug", "bird"... Suddenly my mind flashed back to having his dad on the back of my bicycle thirty years earlier hearing the same sounds. Where did all that time go? The book of Ecclesiastes talks quite a bit about time and has this to say at the end, "Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion to the matter: Fear God & keep His commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil." Whatever time is, it counts most when we use it serving the Lord. Time works best whenever we dedicate whatever we are doing to His honor. I'm so glad I took my son to church & taught him the ways of God. It would have been so easy to get caught up in other things as the time slipped by. So many meaningless things we did together don't even come to mind but the things of God last forever. Now there's a neat word: forever.
