THE VIEW FROM MY WINDOW

I recently had my eyes examined so I could order a new supply of contact lenses. A "free" pair of lenses comes with the exam. They didn't have my exact prescription in stock so the receptionist gave me a lens that was "a half-step off" & told me I shouldn't have any problems with it. I was able to see well enough to navigate through each day but this morning I decided I'd had enough of vision that was half a step off & I put in a new pair of contacts. I can once again read large signs from a distance! Everything is sharper.

There are times when our spiritual vision is just a half-step off. We haven't fallen into false doctrine but neither are we seeing the truth clearly enough to propel us in the right direction.

May the Word shared today refocus our hearts onto the task of sharing Jesus with a lost world.

- Pastor Joel Everhart
