THE VIEW FROM MY WINDOW

When the preacher asked the bride if she would take her husband for richer or for poorer she responded, "Richer." Unfortunately, the correct answer is, "All of the above." Life is quite an adventure with few guarantees. It can become quite difficult. We are allowed to choose one person to be our partner through it all: our spouse.

Some people make their choice based on a rational list of qualities every good partner should possess: intelligence, a marketable skill, mental stability, a good sense of humor, ability to communicate, etc. Most, though, navigate the waters of matrimony based on goosebumps, which tell them who to pursue & who to avoid.

However you ended up with the spouse you have, remember: they are a child of God, they deserve to be loved, & they are worthy of a partner who is committed to their marriage. Does that sound like you?

- Pastor Joel Everhart
