THE VIEW FROM MY WINDOW

God has been showing me lately that fear is worse than injury. It is more traumatic to be afraid of a bee than to be stung by one; the fear of a bully does more damage to us than his punch. Fear is our great enemy. Faith, hope, & love are our tools to combat fear. Knowing that we are under the protection of a sovereign, all powerful God who loves us should eliminate most of our anxieties.

If He allows something to strike us, even the pain will somehow serve to improve us. We may not enjoy the experience but will through it learn to endure. Earned endurance & patience make us whole, complete, able to stand. "Fear not for I have redeemed you. I have called you by name you are mine". Every time you cross another fear off your list (spiders, snakes, meetings, speaking in front of others, being rejected, going to the dentist...) you give the enemy less room to trouble your soul. Learn how to use your Shield of Faith to extinguish the devil's fiery darts of fear & worry.
