THE VIEW FROM MY WINDOW

I was relaxing on the couch when I began to stretch my arms, grunt, & moan as we old men often do. My grandson left his toys, crawled up on the couch, & began to mimic my actions as well as the sounds I was making. After about a minute he asked, "What are we doing, Grandpa?"

I thought he didn't want to miss a good opportunity to stretch. Apparently he was just willing to try something that looked strange even though the benefit of it was not immediately obvious.

Many believers fail to see the benefits of studying the Bible. They may actually read it from time to time but do so more out of obligation than anticipation. Dutifully reading the Word of God & mimicking what we see other believers doing won't cut it. Ask the Lord to speak to you through His Word then read it with an open mind. Learning to love the Bible is a huge step forward in your maturing as a Christian & as a person. Try it; you'll like it.
