The View
From My Window

WITH PASTOR JOEL

I was holding my 3-month-old granddaughter as she looked like she was doing her best to communicate with me:

I said, "The baby's talking to me." My 3-yr-old grandson asked, "What's she saying?" "Grandpa is my favorite," I responded.

Parker put his head down in a pouting fashion & said, "Me-maw is her favorite."

Jeremiah went through some moments when he didn't feel like the Lord's favorite. In fact, he felt like the brunt of one of God's jokes! However, he knew enough to stay faithful even when it hurt to serve the Lord.

It's alright to vent to the Lord but it's never okay to quit. Trust that God knows what He's doing & that everything will work together for good.

- Pastor Joel
