The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

About a month ago I was out on the playground with my grandson where I ran into Tim Ruth & Mike Einsig with their grandchildren. Each of us had the same thought, When did we become grandpas? Just yesterday we were young fathers helping to establish New Life Assembly as a new church. We're older now but I think I can speak for my friends when I say that the wonder of Christmas still rings true in our hearts; perhaps even a little brighter now that we have toddlers with which to enjoy the season.

Christmas really is marvelous. It is so fantastic that angels broke through the veil to celebrate the moment with shepherds. So, "Have yourself a merry little Christmas, let your heart be light." Enjoy all the wonder, romance, love, & hope that comes with the season. Be angelic in your attitude: pronounce peace & goodwill upon all who cross your path. Maybe then they, too, will believe that a Savior has indeed come to rescue us.
