REVAMPED STUDENT MINISTRY

We've opened up our youth group to include young unmarried adults up to age 25. Students will meet at 6pm on Sundays in the youth room. Parents of these students are encouraged to chip in to support this ministry - see Andrea in the café to get involved!

Students interested in being in the Student Worship Band should see Tyler Russell.

PATRIOTS V. FALCONS - WATCH THE GAME HERE AT NEW LIFE!

Come watch The Big Game tonight at 6:30pm in the gym. $5/person (collected at the door), all food is provided! Commercials & Halftime Show will be muted. There will be games & prizes at halftime! Sign up in the café!

Bring a comfy chair for the ultimate viewing experience!

HELP SAVE LIVES - DONATE BLOOD ON FEBRUARY 19

The bloodmobile is coming to New Life on Sunday, February 19 from 8:30am-12pm. Donate blood before or after one of the services that day.

Sign up for a timeslot today in the café.

The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

The wife & I were in a Target when we got to the checkout to find the young clerk trying to stem the flow of blood from a fresh wound on his finger. "Do you need a Band-Aid?" I asked. "Yes," he replied. I pulled one out of my wallet & applied it to his finger. We got 15% off of our purchase.

I started out as a Cub Scout, later a Boy Scout & finally a Royal Ranger. The Boy Scout motto is Be prepared, the Ranger's motto is Ready. Some of that training must have stuck because my pockets tend to be full of "just in case" stuff: pocket knife, tissues, cough drops (cold or no cold), mints, band aids, extra keys, zip drive, coupons, cell phone, wallet, paper clip, safety pin ... My one true wish in life is for more pockets.

James tells us to have our spirit ready to respond to any call of God that may come our way. Its not enough to say we believe; we need to be ready to obey, ready to sacrifice, ready to do His will at a moment's notice. Be prepared; be ready to serve.

- Pastor Joel
