The View
From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

My dad likes to collect change in various containers. My mom enjoys giving it away, container & all. Piggy banks, old milk jugs, fancy tins, I've seen them all come & go. Dad would like to have a little money stashed away for a rainy day. Mom is always looking for someone that can use a little more money today. I wonder which one will get credit for all that generosity: the one that saved it or the one that gave it away? It could never have been given if it hadn't been collected.

What if every time you touched money it hurt? James says that for some people their gold will cling to them & burn their flesh! Don't be that guy. Follow the Scripture's advice on how to handle your money & avoid getting burned with your finances.
