The View From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

If you have Comcast you know the drill: every couple of months the price goes up & every couple of months you call to complain. Personally, we have had their "triple play" where Internet, TV, & phone are all "bundled" together for one price three different times. Interspersed between those intervals we have had only cable & internet. Every time we go back to a triple play we get a new landline number. Every time we get a new phone number we get calls from collectors looking for "Lucy" or "Dick" or whoever for about a year. About the time the collectors stop calling the plan changes, we lose home phone service. Never before have we paid so much for so little in return for so much continual hassle.

Thankfully the Lord offers to bundle several blessings together without raising the cost every couple of months. The Lord is interested in both your physical health & your emotional wellbeing. Why not tell the Lord you'd like the bundle He's offering this morning?
