WITH PASTOR JOEL

What a winter! On Thursday we'd all be running around in shorts, the trees were budding, geese were flying north ... By the next Tuesday we were shoveling snow off our driveways, bracing ourselves against the arctic blast & wondering if we had bought enough milk & bread.

I wonder if the geese impeached their leader & elected another?

It seems to me that it's harder than ever to calculate the season based on the thermostat. I have friends that went to Florida for a week to escape the winter blues only to find out it was sunny & in the high 60's here while they were gone.

I think all this is just one more way the Lord is shaking things up to try & get our attention.

Jesus is coming back very soon! More important than knowing what to wear to school or work; more important than making vacation plans; more important than figuring out when to take the cover off the grill & the pool is to discern the time of the Lord's coming. He's coming soon; don't miss it!
