The View From My Window
WITH PASTOR JOEL

My phone is only two years old but soon after I got it, it informed me that there was no more storage space available on it to update my current apps let alone download any new ones. I guess I made a poor choice to pick a phone that was obsolete before it was paid off. It still sends & receives calls & texts just fine but its limited in what it can do otherwise.

Some Christians are like my phone: useful for basic functions but restricted in what they expect to accomplish in life. Unlike my phone their limitations are self-imposed. The power of God working through us is limited only by our lack of expectation to be used by the Lord. Surely God has all the strength we need to do anything, but when we decide we can't do something rather than trusting the Lord to show up - that's where we get stuck. Expect God to use you to show someone else the way to find peace with God.

- Pastor Joel
