The View
From My Window

WITH PASTOR JOEL

Our 2-year-old grandson Cooper received a toy vacuum cleaner for his birthday along with a number of other things. I call it a 'toy' but it actually works. That was the 1st gift he opened & he started sweeping as soon as he did ... he kept sweeping even though the rest of his family urged him to open other presents!

Later that evening he was still sweeping. Kayla sent a picture of him wearing his new cammo rubber boots, long sleeved, short legged, striped onesie with the word 'DUDE' written across the chest while vacuuming the carpet. That boy sure appreciated that gift. That boy's got style.

Your vacuum may not have made your list of things you're thankful for this year but it would be good to make a list. It's easy to get caught up in the busyness of the season & miss the point of the holiday completely. So, while I have your attention, think about three things you are very thankful for right now.
